DEDICATION

We the Seniors of '47 wish to dedicate this Pemberette to Miss Rogers, our class sponsor for her help during our high school career; and to the future for which we have been preparing for these last twelve years, with hopes that our country for all time will continue to be a land of freedom and opportunity.

Up Fifth Avenue, across Broadway, with its glitter of a million lights, we travel to the Little Theater off Times Square. It's a First Nighter—the Teachers' Revue of "47". We enter the theater just as the house-lights are dimming for the opening scene.

A bright light penetrates the sea of darkness, and on the screen we see the reflection of our Superintendent, Mr. Schubert. His likeable personality, his ability to keep the machinery of the school in good running order, and his helpfulness and guidance to both students and teachers, make a striking picture.

Here the picture changes and in the midst of sewing machines, pots and pans, we see our Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Green. She is very ably guiding the girls in the different phases of home-making and other useful arts.

Picture after picture, and by this time, we are thoroughly entranced by the Revue. A dramatic figure delves into the mysteries of English Literature, History, and Government, with many followers in her wake; glad, yes even eager, to be in the service of learning. Need we ask ourselves if it be Miss Crafts.

Music greets our ears and, lo and behold, the chuckling personality of Mr. Kingsbury, struggling with his band and numerous musical groups, is shown to us. Pemberville School was indeed privileged to have a music department under his capable direction.

Among X's and Y's, of course we know it's Algebra, Mrs. Russell shines. In teaching Mathematics and Biology, her kindness and thoughtfulness make her pupils realize her worth.

Amid the smoke of an experiment, the image of Mr. Heckman slowly appears. His practical knowledge of scientific facts, together with his good-will and friendship, make this well-liked teacher an inspiration to many students.

Themes are quickly composed, and notebooks easily take shape when Mrs. Cornell grasps the stern of the good ship "English". She is a tactful personage, who leads her pupils along the road of learning, and sends out her instructed better fitted for the future.

A round of applause echoes through the theater as Mr. Madaras makes his appearance. In his remarkable way, he has gained the admiration of the entire student body. A keynote to his personality is his good-sportsmanship. It is no wonder Pemberville's Baseball Team won the County Tournament.

An essence of charm and cheerfulness is reflected as we see the petite figure of Miss Rogers. Her every action, whether it be dictation or giving a speed test, contains so much snap, enthusiasm, and sparkle, that it causes a glow in the hearts of we who are seated in the theater. Members of the class of "47" recall many happy memories when they see her picture.

The spotlight then directs our attention to a remarkable group of teachers—those that lead the grade children. The leader of the group is Mrs. Bailey, who teaches the first grade. Following are Mrs. Bruning and Miss Schneider, second and third grade teachers. Mrs. Crockett, the fourth grade teacher is also in the group. Two very familiar faces, to those of us in high school, are those of Miss Bruning and Miss Fahle, doing an excellent job in giving the young citizens of tomorrow a good start in life.

With the grand finale the curtain falls on the Teacher's Revue of "47". The house-lights brighten and the people leave to join the throngs on the Great White Way.

Senior Class History

Four years ago our Class of 1947 entered its high school days with twenty-eight students hoping to find the knowledge we would need in our future life.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Cook, we started our high school career. We received two new pupils, Dick Hummel from New Rochester, and James Madden from Toledo. During the course of the year we lost Billy Hervey and Ted Hansen.

For our Freshman year we chose Blue and White as our class colors. The officers we elected were as follows:

President.....Dick Reitzel
Vice-President.....Eloise Dierksheide
Secretary.....Mary Hebler
Treasurer.....Henrietta Krift
Reporter.....Beryl Jean Covill

We were very proud of our Freshmen boys when they played in the inter-class tournament finals. Several of our boys were on the Reserve Basketball team.

A class party was held in the school cafeteria. The first year of our high school days had already passed.

September 1944! With Mrs. Lambert as our class sponsor and twenty-four students, we began our Sophomore year. During this year we welcomed into our presence one new pupil, Raymond Dunham.

The following officers were chosen:

President.....Eloise Dierksheide
Vice-president.....Robert Dierksheide
Secretary.....Jane Westerhaus
Treasurer.....Melvin Karns
Reporter.....Beryl Jean Covill

With the beginning of the basketball season, three students from our class were chosen as cheerleaders. They were Eloise Dierksheide, Henrietta Krift, and Herbert Titkemeier.

Again several of our boys were on the basketball and baseball teams. We were very proud of our boys when they won the inter-class tournament. We again had Blue and White as our class colors.

During the year we enjoyed a skating party at Bowling Green.

The most important activity of our Sophomore year, at least to us, was the selection of our class rings.

September 1945! We began our Junior year with an enrollment of twenty-six and Miss Rogers as our class sponsor.

The following officers were elected:

President.....Herbert Titkemeier
Vice-president.....Dick Reitzel
Secretary.....Ronald Bruning
Treasurer.....Mary Lee Wegman
Reporter.....Eloise Dierksheide

In our Junior year more of our boys were on the basketball and baseball teams. Henrietta, Eloise, and Herbert were again chosen cheerleaders. Blue and White were our class colors.

By the middle of October we were proudly wearing our class rings.

Our next big event, under the capable direction of Mrs. Cornell was the presenting of our class play, "For Pete's Sake," on November 9, 1945.

On January 29, we took an educational trip to the Art Museum in Toledo.

The most exciting happening of the year—that event toward which all Juniors look forward—was our Junior-Senior Prom, which was held on May 3. The theme of our banquet was based upon the idea of a Love Shop with the heart being the main feature of decoration. A heart shaped path of white stones, adorned with spring flowers, extended around the dance floor. Punch was served from gold and white Love Shops which were erected in the two far corners of the room. Covering the ceiling was a canopy of blue and white crepe paper and in the center of the canopy two larger hearts interchanged with a cupid dangling within them. The cocktail was served in the lobby which was decorated with candles, spring flowers, and lounge furniture. Our mothers provided what the boys enjoyed most, the delicious food. The Kimble Orchestra, from Oak Harbor, provided the music for the evening.

Finally, September 1946 arrived—the year which we had been waiting for. We were Seniors, twenty-four of us. During the first semester we lost one student, Eileen Beam. Miss Rogers was again our class sponsor.

We chose the following officers:

President..... Herbert Titkemeier
Vice-president..... Dick Reitzel
Secretary..... Carol Jeanne Samson
Treasurer..... Eloise Dierksheide
Reporter..... Jane Westerhaus

The first event of the year was the photographing of our class at Dickens Studio, of Fostoria, in October.

Magazine sales, turkey raffles, a banquet, and our class play enlarged our fund that was maintained for our class trip.

Again several of our boys were on the basketball and baseball teams.

We chose as our class motto, "God is the master of my fate—The Captain of my soul." Maroon and White were chosen as our class colors. In October, we ordered our caps and gowns, white for the girls and maroon for the boys.

Our class play was given on May 2, under the direction of Miss Crafts.

Another event, never to be forgotten, was the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held on May 9.

Our Baccalaureate Service was held on May 18. Reverend Schmidt, of New Rochester, was the speaker.

We received our diplomas the 23rd of May at our Commencement exercises. The Reverend Tennyson Guyer gave a very interesting Commencement address.

To all of our teachers, and especially to Miss Rogers, our class sponsor, we offer our thanks for their guidance and advice.

As we close the pages of this history, let us cherish the memories of our four years together. We have shared many happy times and disappointments, but these all go with growing up.

The following is a short summary of the Commencement address given by Reverend Guyer.

"HALL MARKS OF SUCCESS"

You will notice that the word 'Commencement' ends with the word 'cement.' So at the very outset, you may expect life to be hard, as you leave life's school for the school of life.

The world has sustained four tremendous experiences: (1) The Discovery of Fire; (2) The Invention of the Wheel; (3) The Christian Era; and (4) The Atomic Fission.

You within the class are stepping out into a world that is paradoxical indeed. Less than 400 million white people rule the other 1 billion, 500 million colored people, and control 9/10's of the earth's surface. Your world has been rocked with 1100 wars in the last 1000 years. Half of the people of the world still go barefooted; half of them go to bed hungry every night; half cannot make a living; and two-thirds of them will die either in poverty, disgrace, bondage, or desperation.

Greatness comes in three ways: Some men are born great; some become great; and others have greatness thrust upon them. Most of us, if we ever become great, will have to do it the hard way, by becoming great. Perhaps this brings the greatest comfort. As the adage goes, "He who cuts his own wood, warms himself twice."

Every child coming into this world has three God-given prerogatives: The right to be Well-Bred; Well-Fed; and Well-Wed. I trust this class fruitfully achieves all three.

I should like to give the class these six Cardinal Hall-Marks for living a Successful and Useful Life. No man or woman ever achieved greatness without them. (1) Have a Great Message; (2) Possess a Masterful Technique; (3) Develop a Keen Knowledge; (4) Own a Radiant Personality; (5) Have a Love For People; (6) Enjoy Mental Health.

The world cries for young men and women who dare take the torch from faltering hands. All of you, under God, may dare to laugh easily, love much, trust supremely, work usefully, lift gladly, and live eternally.

Senior Class Prophecy

TIME: 1957

PLACE: Hollywood, California. In the outer office of Sam Goldwyn, the movie producer, two old friends are just meeting.

Beryl Jean Covill: Evelyn Baker! What in the world are you doing here?

Evelyn Baker: I've just sold my play "True Confession" to Sam Goldwyn for a movie production.

Beryl Jean: Well, is that a coincidence! I'm going to do the costumes for it.

Evie: Wonderful! Have you heard who is going to play the lead in it?

Beryl Jean: Goldwyn told me it was an up-and-coming young actress by the name of Sylvia Gay.

Evie: Yes, that's her stage name, but her real name is Henrietta Krift.

Beryl Jean: Well, I didn't even know she was in Hollywood; do you know where we can reach her? Maybe we could arrange dinner together tomorrow night at the opening of the Golden Slipper Nite Club.

Evie: That would be wonderful!

Did you know Robert Smith and Herbert Titkemeier are in town too? Bob has an orchestra, and Herbie is his vocalist. I hear their wives have just left for New York, so we can invite them to our supper also.

Beryl Jean: This is going to be like old times.

Ray Dunham has a steamship line now. His office is near here. We could ask him too.

Evie: Let's go call them right away.

* * * * *

TIME AND PLACE: The next evening at 9 o'clock, Robert Lee Smith, Herbert Titkemeier, Ray Dunham, Henrietta Krift, Beryl Jean, and Evelyn are seated in a dimly lit corner of the Golden Slipper Club. The Manager approaches greeting his guests on the opening night; he reaches the table of the above mentioned group, and, to their surprise, who should it be but their old classmate, Donald Rahe.

RICHARD HUMMEL

MARY HEBLER

MELVIN KARNs

HENRIETTA KRIFT

DONALD RAHE

Dodger (Donald Rahe): Henrietta, did you arrange this surprise? I didn't expect to see half of my graduating class here on opening night.

Henrietta Krift: No, I thought I'd let it be a surprise to them; by the way, did all of you know Dodger and I are engaged?

Ray Dunham: Well! this night is full of surprises. Congratulations.

Pull up a chair, Dodger, we were just talking about our other classmates. Have you heard from any of them?

Dodger: On my way west last month, my car broke down and I had it fixed in a garage in Denver, and who do you think was the owner? It was Allan Ballard; he invited me out to his house for supper. Boy! is his wife a good cook!

Henrietta: I received a letter from Eloise last week. Did you know she and Dick Reitzel are married? They are living in Brooklyn, New York. She told me Dick's baseball team, the "Who's-on-1st-What's-on-2nd", is really going places.

Ray: Well, you know ships don't get you every place, so I took a plane to New York last week and Ronald Bruning was the pilot.

Robert Lee: I got a letter from my Mother last week, she said Carol Samson is teaching in Dayton this year, but she is planning her wedding to a Dayton lawyer next spring.

Herbie: I saw Lowell Witker in New York last year; he was getting quite wealthy playing the stock markets, but was spending it all in the nite clubs.

Evie: I heard from Bernice Bruning last week; she and her husband have a large dairy farm near Bryan.

Beryl Jean: The last time I heard from Jane Westerhaus she was secretary to Dr. Siezm, the famous brain surgeon.

Ray: Did you know Dick Hummel is a captain on one of my ships? He isn't married yet; he says, "Why should I get married and make one happy, when I can stay single and make all of them happy."

ALICE PATTERSON

ROBERT LEE SMITH

MARCIA WISE

Henrietta: Mary Hebler and Mary Lee Wegman are sharing an apartment in Toledo. Mary Lee is teaching music there, and Mary has her own beauty salon.

Dodger: Jenny Ellis and Gene Thomas got married and are now a wonderful dancing team. I have them engaged for the floor show next month.

Herbert: I saw in the paper last week that Melvin Karns was promoted; he is now the Vice-president of the Bordo Sweeper Company.

Robert Lee: The last time I heard about Earl Abke, he had a 500 acre farm and was in the trucking business near Bowling Green.

Evie: Alice Ann Patterson is teaching gymnastics at Bowling Green State University; and I think Marcia Wise is the fashion illustrator for the Charm Magazine.

Henrietta: That covers all of our classmates doesn't it? But have any of you heard from our class sponsor, Miss Rogers.

Beryl Jean: Yes, I saw her in Chicago last month at a fashion show, and it's Mrs. Sheeter now, not Miss Rogers. She told me that her husband is the President of the Sheeter 5 & 10 Company, that they have two children, and are living in Evanston, Illinois.

Ray: Look at the time, one o'clock and I'm sailing at five thirty this morning. Sorry to break up the party, but I must go.

Herbert: Yes, Bob and I have to catch a plane for New York this morning; we must be getting along too.

Dodger: Can I call a taxi for any of you?

Beryl Jean: No thanks, not for Evie and me. I have my car and Evie is going to share my apartment for awhile. Could we drop you off Henrietta?

Henrietta: No, I'll wait for Dodger.

Dodger: Why don't you all come back when Jenny is playing here.

Robert Lee: That would be swell; we'll let you know if we are in town. Well, so long everybody. It was a swell party.

Senior Class Will

We, the Class of 1947, presumably of sound minds and trained memories, have trod the Halls of Pemberville High School for four brief years; and realizing that all things come to an end, and that soon another group will take our places and wrestle with the same problems, and make their bid for fame as we did; and we, having acquired certain intangible and incorporeal attributes which we would like to pass on to those who came after us, do individually make the following bequest:

EARL ABKE wills his desire for finding new girlfriends to Howard Nollenberger.

EVELYN BAKER bequeaths the beauty of her cute legs to Betty Konzen.

ALLAN BALLARD wishes to will his mouse-like qualities in class to Duane Patterson.

BERNICE BRUNING wills her wavy pompadour to Pauline Davidson.

RONALD BRUNING hereby wills his position as center on the basketball team to John Dirksen.

BERYL JEAN COVILL wills her gray hairs and worries to any future editor.

ELOISE DIERKSHEIDE is glad to will her absent-mindedness to Hilda Wentland.

RAYMOND DUNHAM wills his life insurance to anyone who rides with him.

JENNY ELLIS wishes to will her variety of hair styles to Margaret Henline.

MARY HEBLER wills her characteristic giggle and willingness to laugh at most anything to Lois Wigman.

DICK HUMMEL wills his bright remarks to Dick Beeker.

MELVIN KARNS wills his dashing manner to Donald Oberhouse.

HENRIETTA KRIFT wills her typing ability to Norma Ernsthausen.

ALICE ANN PATTERSON wills her becoming smile and sense of humor to Romaine Abke.

DONALD RAHE wills his position as pitcher on the baseball team to Louie Hiser.

DICK REITZEL wills his technique of hitting beautiful home runs to Kenny Seiving.

CAROL JEANNE SAMSON wills her gift of gab to anyone who may wish to be entertaining to the world at large.

ROBERT LEE SMITH wills his acting ability to Gene Kohring.

HERBERT TITKEMEIER wills his blonde hair and blushing face to Tom Sigler.

MARY LEE WEGMAN wills her dimples to Marilyn Hobart.

JANE WESTERHAUS wills her quiet voice and gentle actions to Frances Venis.

MARCIA WISE wills her habit of coming with one and going home with another to Marion Cochran.

LOWELL WITKER wills his dancing feet to Henry Gerwin.

Wherefore, the undersigned have set their hands as witness to this document.

MARY HEBLER
BERNICE BRUNING
ALLAN BALLARD

Can You Imagine?

EARL ABKE not teasing.

ALLAN BALLARD giving a 12 minute speech.

EVELYN BAKER with a gloomy disposition.

BERNICE BRUNING with flaming red lips.

RONALD BRUNING directing a swing band.

BERYL JEAN COVILL singing a solo in "Merry Widow."

ELOISE DIERKSHEIDE being a nurse.

RAYMOND DUNHAM driving straight down a crooked road.

JENNY ELLIS being a six foot blonde.

MARY HEBLER quiet as a mouse.

RICHARD HUMMEL going steady.

MELVIN KARNS washing dishes in a cafeteria.

HENRIETTA KRIFT without all her nicknames.

ALICE PATTERSON being a glamorous model.

DONALD RAHE not being a problem child.

RICHARD REITZEL without his Hudson.

CAROL JEANNE SAMSON not going on and on about something.

ROBERT LEE SMITH working on the railroad.

HERBERT TITKEMEIER being a football star.

MARY LEE WEGMAN being an old maid.

JANE LOUISE WESTERHAUS being pale.

MARCIA WISE admitting she has coal black hair.

LOWELL WITKER getting anywhere on time.

Men usually thought Vicky's pranks were cute, but Professor Perry curtly ordered Vicky to call and apologize or drop his course. Vicky sulkily obeyed. At the Perry home she overheard a bit of gossip: Professor Perry has been offered a deanship . . . if he can get a wife. His friend, John and his family rally around to help. John offers his secretary, a curly-haired little minx who can't spell, as an ideal wife. Grandma's candidate is Tootsie Bean, a bit plump, but a master-hand with lemon chiffon pie. Vicky, longing for revenge, proposes a friend, Valerie, a southern charmer who makes a fool out of every man she meets. Grandpa won't tell the name of his candidate. Convulsing scenes follow; Tootsie appears with a pie for the Professor. Grandpa makes each think the Professor has proposed an elopement, and they all appear, ready for the dash to matrimony! Butcher Boy sees to it that he gets his sister's pie. The three candidates come to dinner and wheedle and flatter the embarrassed Professor. There is plenty of comedy as the irate girls face each other—especially when, to save the situation, John dresses as a woman, comes in weeping, with three children trailing after him and passes himself off as the Professor's long-lost wife! The three girls console themselves elsewhere. In a whirlwind finish, Granpa's candidate wins, the Professor finds a wife in the little spitfire Vicky!

Senior Class Poem

Dick H. is always trying
To get a person's "goat",
But in our song of happiness
He strikes a cheerful note.

Dick R. is our vice-president,
A bashful sort of guy.
But if you need him he's on hand,
There's nothing he won't try.

Allan has a "Chevie"
Which most of us have used.
And if it wears out too soon,
It's because it's been abused.

Beryl Jean is our editor
Who knows just what to do.
And when it comes to Civics,
Well, she can do that, too.

Ronald is the center
On our basketball team.
He's tall and he's got what it takes
To keep the boys on the beam.

Earl is our Romeo
Or something of the sort
He's just like a sailor,
"A girl in every port."

Henrietta is a blonde,
A pretty little gal.
And when it comes to friendship,
She's the swellest kind of pal.

Lowell is the Kroger boy
Whose clerking we adore,
And we think if he keeps it up
Someday he'll own the store.

Eloise helps to cheerlead
Our team to victory.
And when we are the winners,
She's really filled with glee.

Melvin is flirtatious,
He talks with all the girls.
But he's a friend of everyone
In neckties or with curls.

Dodger is the pitcher
Of our baseball team;
When we became the county champs
He poured on all his steam.

Raymond likes to argue,
He'd argue to the end.
Although he's handy with this trait
He really is a friend.

Robert is our pianist
Whether it's jive or mellow.
He knows his business on the ivories,
He is quite a fellow.

Mary Lee also knows the keyboard,
She can play most any tune.
In her spare time you'll find her playing
Debussy's Clair de Lune.

Bernice is a gardener
Who loves to care for flowers.
You'll often see her in the garden
Where she toils away for hours.

Carol writes our letters
And keeps us up to date,
She takes notes of decision
When we have a debate.

Evie is a pretty girl
With a wavy pompadour.
She's pretty and quite clever,
Who could ask for more.

Herbie is our president,
Has charge of our affairs.
He's quite a lively sort of guy
Most anyone declares.

Mary is our Lily Pons,
She can sing so high.
Perhaps she'll make a Nelson Eddy
Of some lucky guy.

Jenny is romantic
And as cute as she can be.
If you want a new hair-do
Ask Jenny for the key.

Marcia is the artist;
She's handy with the pen.
If you want a picture painted,
Upon her you can depend.

Janie is a quiet girl
So gentle and demure.
She'll make some man a lovely wife,
Of this we are quite sure.

Alice Ann is our tomboy;
Teasing is her favorite sport.
Just pull a joke on her someday,
And she'll have a retort.

Miss Rogers is our sponsor
To whom we wish the best
Of everything that her dear life
Can possibly possess.

Junior Activities

We began our Junior year with twenty-six pupils and added one new member, Frances Venis. During the year we lost one pupil, Beulah Baker. We were again under the sponsorship of Mrs. Cornell.

We elected the following officers:

President JoAnn Gockerman
Vice-president Howard Nollenberger
Secretary Norma Ernsthausen
Treasurer Scott Muir
Reporter Hilda Wentland
Assistant Annual Editor Marion Cochran
Assistant Business Manager
..... Robert Alexander

On the evening of November 8, 1946, we gave a three act comedy entitled, "Listen to Lester."

During the course of the year we had charge of a chapel program and took part in the inter-class tournament. We also sponsored a high school dance.

We had a Christmas class party at Desta Dierksheide's.

On February 17, 1947, we had charge of the cooking and the serving of the Elevator Banquet.

We honored the Seniors at the Junior-Senior Prom on the 9th of May. The gym was beautifully decorated and everyone had an enjoyable time.

We are looking forward to next year when we will reach our goal—that of being Seniors. But we shall always remember the pleasant days of our Junior year.

The Durant Sanatorium is on the verge of bankruptcy, a fact which is practically causing Dr. Durant to commit suicide. Dr. Durant's nephews arrive home for the summer vacation, and they bring with them a friend, Lester Leach. They are informed of the impending bankruptcy and immediately put their heads together to devise a plan whereby the sanatorium might be saved.

Lester, the life-saver, has a brain storm. He knows that there are two types of people who are never satisfied, the very fat individuals, who would give anything in the world to be slim and willowy; and the very slim people who would give anything in the world to be pleasingly plump. Why not save the sanatorium by capitalizing on these two types of unsatisfied, wealthy people, who, no doubt, would be more than willing to pay large sums of money if they could be persuaded to believe that certain scientific treatments could make their wishes possible.

Lester persuades the nephews, Bob and Jack, to disguise themselves as the eminent, foreign doctors of the sanatorium, Dr. Rubetoff, who supposedly has the miraculous ability to remove excess poundage; and Dr. Slapitonski, who can make anyone, who so desires, pleasingly plump. Of course the miraculous changes are only the effect of two trick mirrors, one to produce a beanpole reflection, the other a roly-poly effect. Both hilarity and trouble are provided when Sambo, the colored porter, accidentally confuses the mirrors and shows them to the wrong people.

In the meantime Lester has spread an untrue rumor that a famous radio singer is a patient at the sanatorium, in order to influence a wealthy businessman to enter the sanatorium as a patient. Mr. McSnort, the businessman is not so easily hoodwinked, however, and demands to see his famous idol. Consequently, there is nothing left for Lester to do but impersonate Melba Brown, (who, incidentally, turns out to be a negress, who takes a liking to the enamored Sambo.)

The patients soon discover how they have been deceived and are quite enraged. But a happy ending is provided when all the difficulties of the sanatorium have been explained; and when Dr. Durant has been persuaded by Lester to marry one of the wealthy patients who had been his college sweetheart; she then had been slim and willowy. Mr. McSnort also has been shown the advantages of taking a wife and proposes to a second wealthy patient who has been trying to ensnare him during the entire play. Thus Lester, the born Mr. Fix-it, saves the day, so to speak, for all involved.

Grade News

The first grade this year filled Easter baskets for the children at the children's home at Bowling Green.

A choir and a rhythm band were organized this year, under the direction of Mrs. Bailey. Both the first and second grades participated. The choir consisting of 25 voices and the rhythm band of 45 members, were active in both the Christmas and Easter Programs.

The third graders have made very satisfactory progress in the three R's. Our spelling chart in which each pupil was awarded a star for a perfect paper served as a good motivation for learning our spelling.

Along with the usual third grade requirements we had time for extra curricular activities. Most of the students enjoyed making their own poetry anthology, which included our favorite poems. The telling of original stories by pictures and the dramatization of stories from our reader were enjoyed by all. During the study of the building materials and clothing units in Geography we had as a project a display of the fabrics used in clothing and materials used in the construction of our homes.

As a geography project the fourth grade made an eskimo village. The children constructed all of the buildings, people and scenery.

At Christmas, the fourth graders decorated gift boxes for their mothers.

The fifth and sixth grades have a sweetwind band with forty-eight members. The instrument is played as a clarinet and will prepare the player for regular band work.

The third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades again had two Junior Audubon Clubs under the leadership of Mrs. E. H. Ward. This is an annual project and all pupils are members. Mrs. Ward has been the leader for many years and we are grateful to her for her splendid work and interest.

All six grades are members of the Junior Red Cross. At Christmas time, ten overseas gift boxes, containing many useful articles, were packed.

Baseball

Coming back from the summer vacation, we started to practice for our baseball season. We had about a weeks practice before our first game. With only four lettermen back from last year and only twelve new men coming out this year, it was hard to pick a team. However, a good team was selected as we came home with the trophy.

Our first game was with Bradner on our own diamond. In spite of a rather inexperienced team, we emerged victorious, the score being—Pemberville 5, Bradner 4.

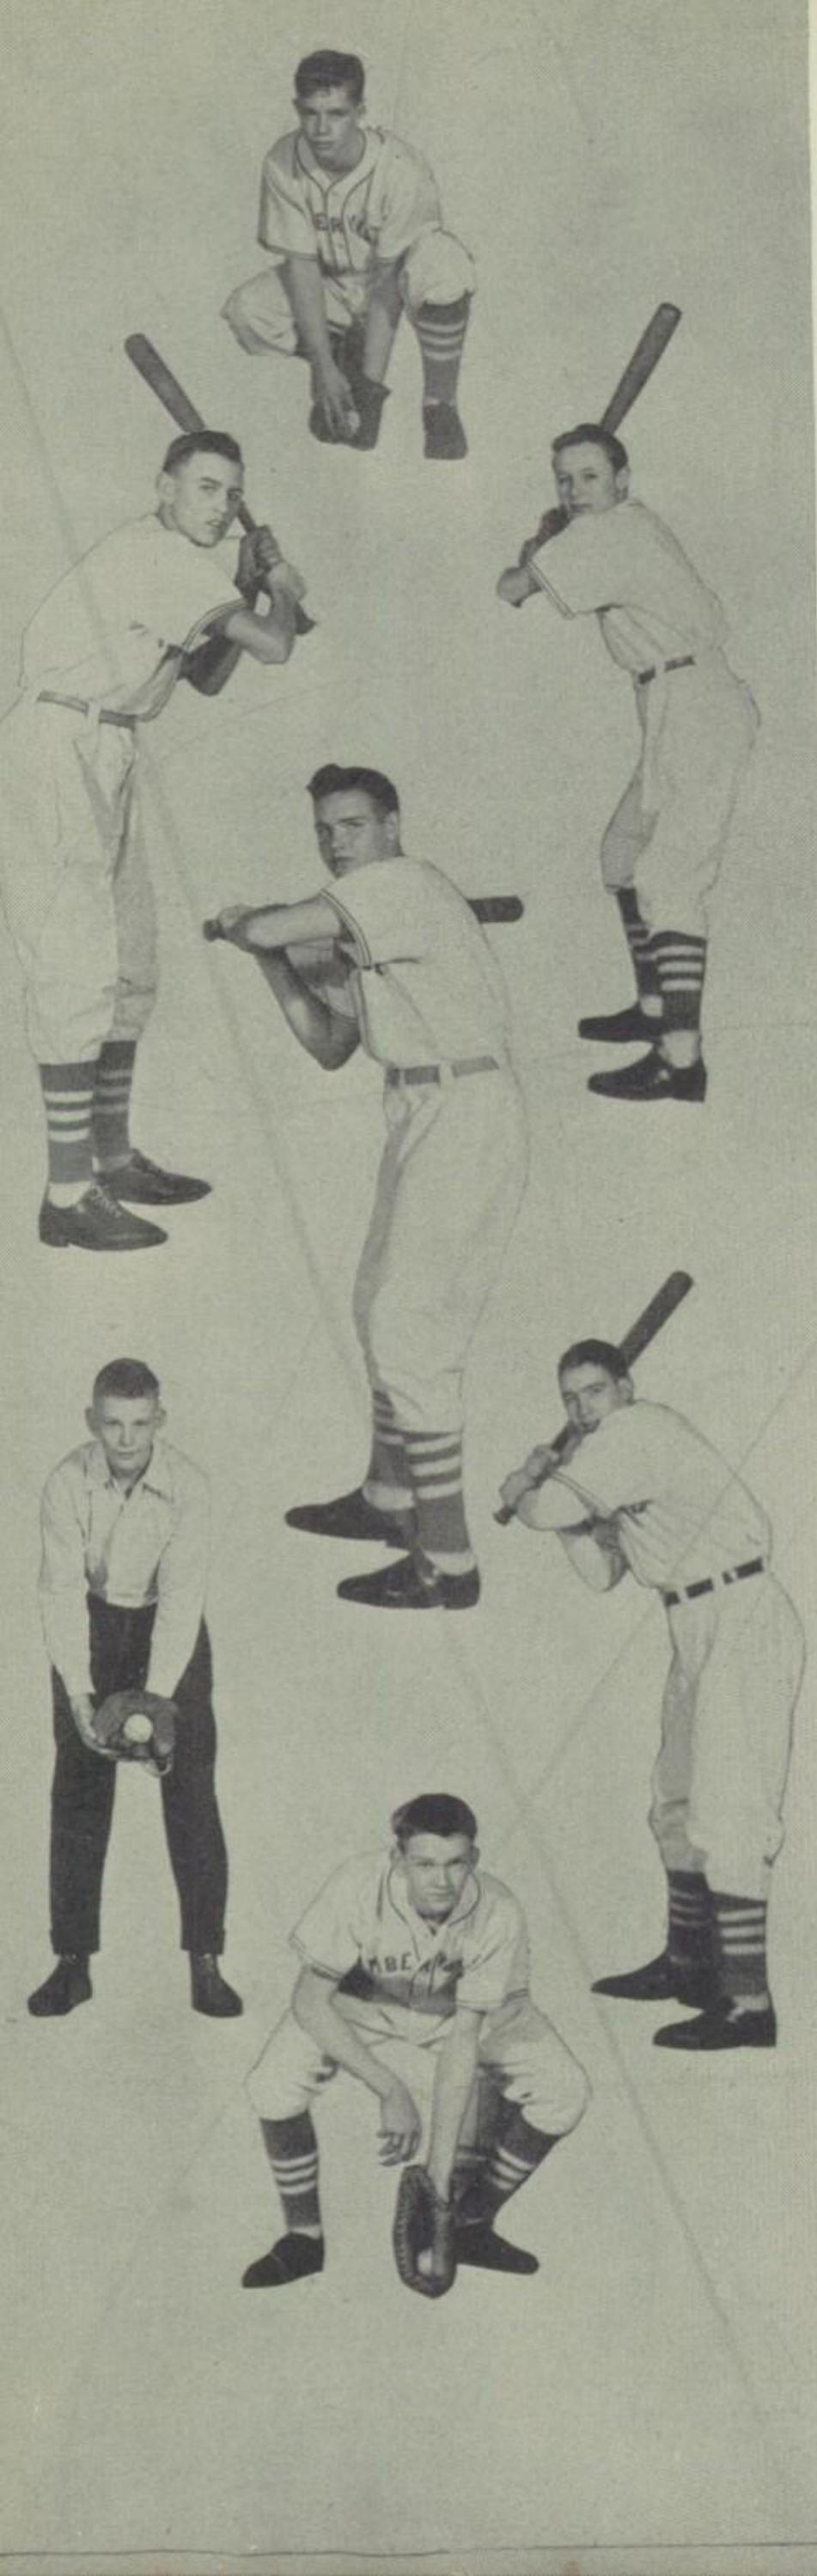

The second game was with Lake, also at home. The game was delayed about ten minutes because of rain, which must have had a bad affect on our team as we came up on the wrong side of the victory—Lake winning with a score of 9 to Pemberville's 3.

Our third game was played against Olney on our home field; they journeyed home the losers. The score for this game was as follows: Pemberville 13, Olney 10.

Then, at Bowling Green, on a neutral field, we played Webster and lost to them, the score being—Webster 11, Pemberville 4.

The game at Bowling Green with Webster was our final game and that meant the beginning of the tournament. All the games of the tournament were played at Bowling Green University. Of course, everyone looks forward to the tournament with the ultimate hope of winning the trophy; and at the close of the fall baseball season, we were very happy to know that our hopes had not been in vain.

We drew Grand Rapids as our opponent for the first game, which was played in a mist of rain. This time the rain brought us luck and we won with a score of 10 to Grand Rapids' 5.

After two days of rest, we returned to the University to play Lake who, it must be remembered, beat us once before. But turn about is fair play, and this time we were victorious with a score of 5 to 0.

At last! our big day! the finals! The only obstacle that could hinder us from being the Wood County Baseball Champs was Webster—and they looked as if they might be a pretty big obstacle because they had beaten us 11 to 4 in a former game. But, nevertheless, with sporting spirit, our team played Webster in the final game of the tournament and won with the following score: Pemberville 10, Webster 5.

Our season's record was 5 winning games and 2 losing games.

In the spring we took part in the District games which were held at Old Fort, Ohio. Ohio.

The batting average for the fall season was as follows:

	AB	R	H	Aver.
Reitzel	21	11	10	.476
Seiving	17	1	8	.470
Karns	18	4	8	.388

TOURNAMENT GAMES

For the first game of the Wood County Tournament, Pemberville drew Risingsun. Our boys got off to a slow start and by the first quarter we were trailing 7-2. Pemberville soon gained their stride, however and by the half time were ahead 10-13. In the last half Risingsun never really threatened, and we won by the score of 24-27. Patterson was high point man with 11 points.

In the second game Pemberville met the weak Milton five, and the game wasn't very interesting. The score at the end of the game was 49-17. There were 62 fouls called in this game. Bruning was high point man with 10 points.

In the third game of the Tournament we met the strong Haskin's Big Reds. In the first quarter Pemberville outscored Haskins 12-9 but at the half we were trailing by the score of 22-17. By the 3rd quarter we were ahead again 32-29, and never relinquished our lead throughout the rest of the game. The final score being 40-33. Bruning was high point man again with 15 points.

In the fourth game the Red Men met Luckey. The Red Men were cold and at the end of the first half the score was 19-6, in Luckey's favor. During the second half the Red Men were still dead on their feet and at the end of the game the score was 36-18. This ended the Red Men's chance for the Wood County championship, but we were qualified for the District Tournament.

In the first game of the District Tournament, Pemberville played Wakeman, Huron County champs. Pemberville trailed by 5 points 28-23 at the end of the third period. The Red Men then rallied to beat them 35-33.

In the second game of the tournament Pemberville met up with a strong Green Springs team. The Green Springs team took an early lead, but at the end of the half the Red Men led 23-19. In the third quarter Pemberville out-scored Green Springs and were leading at the end of that canto 37-25. During the fourth quarter the Red Men again outscored Green Springs and beat them by the score of 53-40.

In the semi-finals the Red Men played Sandusky, St. Mary's. The Red Men were both hot and cold and at the end of the first quarter the score was 6-2. The Red Men were trailing 10-4 after two minutes had been played in the final quarter they rallied to tie the score, 10-10. During the second half they had another streak, and at the three quarter pole, St. Mary's led 27-12. The game ended with a score of 36-20. This ended the basketball season for the Red Men.

Reserve Basketball

Our reserve squad consisting of 13 players finished a rather successful season under the direction of Coach Madaras.

At the end of the season, as the smoke of battle cleared, we find they have won 9 and lost 6.

The boys on the Reserve team received much experience and will profit by it as they advance to varsity positions.

Athletic Association

An Athletic Association was again formed in our school this year. All the faculty members and most pupils in the upper six grades joined the Association by paying a 25 cent membership fee.

The following were elected as officers of the Association for this year: President: Dick Reitzel, Vice President: Howard Nollenberger, Secretary-Treasurer: Eloise Dierksheide. A representative to the Association was chosen from each of the upper six grades.

Before the basketball season started the officers and room representatives elected Dick Reitzel and Scott Muir as managers of the basketball teams; Lowell Witker as scorekeeper; and Earl Abke as timekeeper. The entire Athletic Association elected Eloise Dierksheide, Henrietta Krift, and Herbert Titkemeier as cheerleaders; and Alice Patterson and Lois Ann Wiegman as reporters for our games.

The selling of tickets and pop at basketball games was carried on through committees appointed by the president.

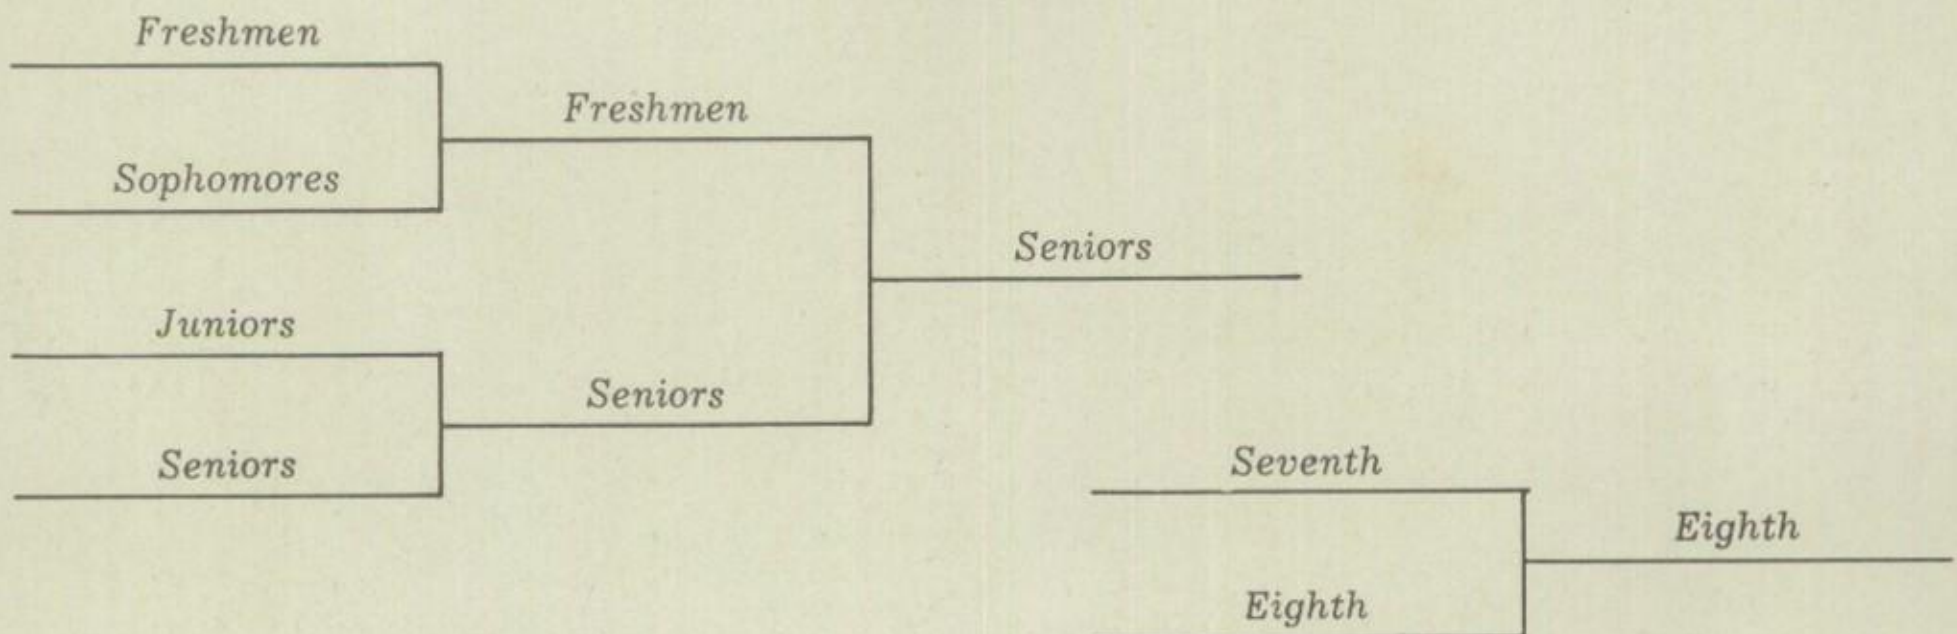

The principle purpose of the association was to promote a feeling of good fellowship between players and spectators and to develop good sportsmanship in our school.

Pemerville, entering the tournament from Wood County with the poorest won-lost record of the 12 competitors—seven victories in 17 starts—proceeded to reverse pre-match predictions by dumping the Huron county champions, Wakarusa, 33-33, in a tilt which saw the lead change hands 11 times and deadlocked on seven other occasions.

Fernberville, trailing by five points, 38-43 at the end of the third period, when little Don Rahe commenced to find the range. When the firing had ceased, the Redman guard had connected for six points in the final chapter for a total of 18 during the game and individual scoring honors. Rahe, Jim Bruing and substitute forward Duane Patterson accounted for Fernberville's entire offensive effort. Tom Mockler topped the Wakarusa quintet with nine points.

for Pemberville. In the first half, Bruning and Donham scored two field goals each, and Donham made two free throws. During the second half, Bruning made two field goals, Donham three, and the game was tied 34-34. Krebs scored one free throw and Bruning scored one free throw each. The final score was 44-34.

And Benker came out to shine for Pembroke in the last quarter scoring three field goals and two four shots, eight points in all. Kohring, Hiner and Dunham made a field goal each and Kohring made a free throw. For Milton, J. Frey and Staher scored a free throw each.
Rumaker two, and Strow sank a field goal. Score at the close of the game 42-17.

Approximately sixty-two percent of the boys were called to this game a probable record for the tournament. One of which we are not proud. Milken ended the game while only four players were in.

A line-up listing two local teams will end a five day rest to play tonight (Thursday) in the semi-finals of the annual Northwestern Ohio District Class B basket ball carnival.

Troy-Luckey, Wood County champions will meet Elmore, Ottawa County titlists at Ross high school, Fremont at 9 p. m., while Pemberville, the dark horse entry will battle Sandusky, St. Mary's at 7:30 p. m.

Troy-Luckey defeated the tough Bradner entry. Pemberville had to whip two county championship teams to win a place in the semi-final lineup. Both Wakeman, Huron County victors and Green Springs, Sandusky County title holders fell to the onslaught of the local Redmen.

Drawing Held for Fremont Tourney

The drawing of teams at Fremont Monday morning resulted in only two of Wood County's five teams playing each other in their first games and fortunately distributed the local teams into the various brackets.

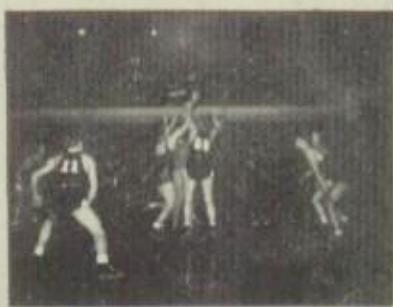

Eleven teams were represented in the drawing which resulted as follows:

Pemberville played Huron County champions, Wednesday at 7 on the stage-gym at the Fremont Ross High. Bloomdale, in the next game at 8:30, played Sandusky St. Mary's winner of Monday night's game against Gibsonburg. At ten o'clock Olney played New London Huron County runner-up.

Bradner faces a tough task in the 7:30 opener tonight (Thursday night) facing the Wood County champions, Troy-Luckey.

At nine o'clock Thursday the winner of the Pemberville-Wakeman game plays Greensprings, Sandusky County champion.

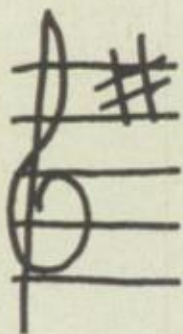

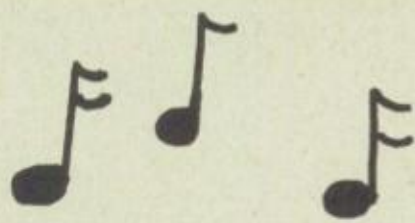

Two games are listed for Friday. They are Castalia-Margaret and Erie-Downs.

Mixed Chorus

The Mixed Chorus consisted of twenty voices grouped together from the Glee Clubs. During the year, Mr. Kingsbury spent a great deal of time in a cappella work. The Chorus participated in several programs, one of which was the Christmas program sponsored by the P. T. A.

The Mixed Chorus derived a lot of enjoyment from their work throughout the year, in addition to having given us real listening pleasure; and they have appreciated and have wished to thank Mr. Kingsbury for the leadership he gave them during the year.

Band

Mr. Kingsbury attempted and succeeded in reorganizing the Pemberville Band. After getting the instruments in shape, he proceeded to organize the Junior Band, which was composed mostly of younger students who had not had the opportunity of playing in the former band. The members of the former band were also included within this organization.

Members of the band consider themselves to be greatly indebted to their band master for his valuable instructions to them; and they are hoping that he will be with them during the next few years so that he might lead them to the rank of superiority.

Girls' Glee Club

At the beginning of the school year, the Glee Clubs organized and began immediate action after a lapse of a year without an instructor in the Music Department.

Under the able direction of Mr. Kingsbury, the Girls' Glee Club presented several laudable performances. Among these were the participation of the girls in Chapel programs and in several P. T. A. meetings.

The girls learned many ballads and hymns, among which were the following: Nocturne, To a Wild Rose, Nightfall in Granada, The Lord's Prayer, Wake Miss Lindy, and many others.

Boys' Glee Club

This year the Boys' Glee Club consists of nine voices. In this club it is possible for any boy, who so desires, to obtain some understanding of music, which is an opportunity for any student.

Science Club

With Mr. Heckman as our advisor, we began our Science Club for the year by an election of officers. The officers that were elected are as follows:

President	Raymond Dunham
Vice-President	Kenneth Seiving
Secretary-Treasurer	Donald Rahe

After experimenting with a few different subjects, it looked as though photography would be the most interesting. So several meetings have been devoted to photography.

At the time this is being written we are intending, in the near future, to study radio and other scientific subjects of interest.

Jokes

Dick Hummel purchased an auto and was driving down the street about sixty miles an hour. A policeman yelled at him to stop, but instead of slowing up, Dick increased his speed. When the officer finally caught up with him, he roared: "Why didn't you stop? Didn't you hear me holler back there?" Seemingly unconcerned, Dick replied: "Oh, was that you that yelled? I thought it was somebody I ran over."

Mrs. Cornell: "I have went'. That's wrong, isn't it?"

Melvin Karns: "Yes, Ma'am."

Mrs. Cornell: "Why is it wrong?"

Melvin Karns: "Because you ain't went yet."

Donald Rahe: "I think you're the most beautiful girl in the world."

Henrietta Krift: "Oh, you'd say so even if you didn't think so."

Donald Rahe: "Well, you'd think so, even if I didn't say so, so we're even."

Teacher: "Parse the word kiss."

Mary Hebler: "This word is a noun, but it is usually used as a conjunction. It is never declined, and more common than proper. It is not very singular, in that it is usually used in the plural. It agrees with me."

Jenny Ellis: "Two dozen diapers, please."

Clerk: "That will be a dollar and a half, plus 8 cents for tax."

Jenny Ellis: "Never mind the tacks. I use safety pins."

Allan Ballard: "This restaurant must have a remarkably clean kitchen."

Mrs. Green: "Thank you, sir; it's nice of you to say so. But, tell me, how did you know?"

Allan Ballard: "Everything tastes of soap."

Dick and Eloise are just leaving for the show. Dick forgetting his manners didn't open the door for Eloise. Eloise not trying to hint, of course, hummed "Open the Door, Richard."

Mr. Kingsbury: "Howard, what did you have for part E?"

Howard Nollenberger: "Oh! I had it wrong."

Mr. Kingsbury, continuing with the lesson: "F."

Howard Nollenberger: "For just missing one?"
